PLEASE HELP!

The rental industry charity for Ukraine – the Plant and Hire Aid Alliance – is looking for urgent help with the transport of some major donations that it has received. They include: 11 pallets of flour, 245 pallets of hospital grade universal and detergent wipes and eight pallets of hospital grade bandages – 264 pallet loads in total.

They need to be transported from, Warrington, Swindon and Ipswich to Kosice in eastern Slovakia at which point Rotary International will take over and co-ordinate their distribution within Ukraine. The flour is destined for charity bakeries in front line villages. While the medical supplies will be delivered to hospitals in the Kharkiv region which are treating military and civilian casualties, as well as the children's hospital and main hospital in Oleksandriya in Southeast Ukraine.

The eight pallets of hospital bandages are in Warrington
The 245 pallets of wipes are in Swindon and
The 11 pallets of flour are located in Ipswich.

The hospital supplies can be double stacked, but that still requires five x three x 40ft trucks to take them to the Slovakian/Ukrainian border. Each truck will cost £3,500 – or if someone can provide the truck and driver.

Many thanks to Travis Perkins, DHL and Lynch Plant and Haulage help to collect and warehouse a donation of 50 pallet loads of toys for next Christmas. To see an report on progress to date: - <https://aid-alliance.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/02/PHA-Report-181223.pdf>
Any help, no matter how small to cover the costs of transport - £3,500 per truck- would be very much appreciated.

All offers or donations - no matter how small- are most welcome.
